Terms & Conditions

LL Coaching Academy soccer school asks its members to read the following guidelines carefully. We ask all members to agree to the following terms and conditions. Your signature on this form acts as a declaration of agreement to these terms.

1. We will not be held liable for bodily injury, temporary disablement or any permanent medical condition caused or contracted during your training at the school. By signing this form you consent to the administration of any medical treatment that is provided to your child by any qualified doctor or medical professional in the event of an emergency.
2. We must be made aware of all allergies, medical conditions and any further health issues or requirements for the child(s) in writing on the application form.
3. We will not be held liable for loss, damage or theft of personal possessions. We recommend our members to leave valuables at home or in a locked facility.
4. Agreeing to photographic consent allows all participants in the soccer school to feature in photographic or video material for promotional purposes by the LL Coaching Academy.
5. We will not be held liable if the soccer school activities are suspended or cancelled due to weather conditions. Wherever possible, we will attempt to organise alternative indoor activities within the hours booked. Should this not be possible a refund will not be provided, but every attempt will be made to organise an alternative session.
6. Bad behaviour or bullying will not be tolerated during the soccer school. Strict instructions must be followed by all children taking part in the academy. In the extreme scenario that a child is asked to leave due to poor behaviour, a refund will not be provided.

Any further queries please contact LL Coaching Academy, or any members of staff.
